GRAND CANYON OF ARIZONA

Nat M. Brigham Delivers His Interesting Panoramic Lecture.

Wedding of Miss Elvira Lund and Peter M. Folkman, and Miss Mary E, Larson and L. E. Field.

Last evening Mr. Nat Brigham appeared at the Congregational church and delivered his magnificent lecture on the Grand Canyon of Arizona, which was listened to with much delight and interest by a fair audience. The lecturer portrayed in beatiful language nided by fine stereopticon views the the grandeur of the canyon, and his earers were carried as it were to some of the most picturesque scenes of nature as they are to be seen in the grand canyon. His lecture was a literary treat seldom had in Ogden. The receipts of the lecture will go to the benefit of the public library.

Sustains a Heavy Loss.

Special Correspondence. Brigham City, Boxelder Co., Dec. 19 .-Five hundred dollars in gold coin was taken from the premises of Abraham Hunsaker, a well known stockman, liv-ing near Brigham City. Mr. Hunsaker sized sums of money secreted on his premises and this time someone else found out where it was kept. It is not known who took the money, but a man by the name of Fred Parsons, a miner from the Consolidated mine, near there, has been working for Mr. Hunsaker for some time and Sunday night suddenly disappeared and has not shown up since, so he is suspected of having gotten away with the money although nothing definite is known. A complaint was filed today with the justice of the peace in and for Box-elder precinct, charging J. H. Clark with obtaining money under false pretenses, by taking from the State 2,000 head of sheep upon which W. S. Mc-Cornick holds a mortgage. In his answer, also filed today, Mr. Clark pleads not guilty.

Successfully Conducted Under the Auspices of the Y. M. M. I. A. Special Correspondence.

Fairview, Sanpete Co., Dec. 18.—During the week just pased the Mutual Improvement association has been very busily engaged holding revival meetings every night commencing last Mon-day night. Great enthusiasm has been manifest among all classes of peo-ple, and the meeting house was literalcrowded every night, not only with the younger portion of our community, but the old sires, fathers and mothers, with their silvery heads, seemed to be fully as much interested as the younger people. Of course, the best talent within reach were procured, and all young Elders who have had experience as ministers in the world, and the advantheir fathers, made good use of the op-

The same labor was also extended to same satisfactory result in awakening renewed interest in the Gospel. Many persons were brought out to the meetings who had not graced a place of worship for years. The series of meetings came to a close on Sunday night, when we were favored in listening to two of the presitwo, seems to give general satisfaction, and meets with universal approval as far as can be learned, as it doubles the number of laborers and puts much valuable talent into active service.
